

A Personal Word

From the Coile Family

September 30, 2025

Dear friends,

These are exciting times to live in! We have so many opportunities to serve the Lord, to be a light in a dark world. People need to hear the gospel, and saved people need to be trained how to live a life that is pleasing to God. There's a lot of ministry to do!

We are busy getting ready to host the Fall Retreat at Grace Farm, which will be October 3-5. Retreats at Grace Farm are different from camp in that they are shorter than week-long events, and retreats have a more relaxed atmosphere than the high-energy feel of camp. Retreats are a great way to interrupt the busyness and noise of life with encouragement and Bible training. Kids need spiritual help and guidance all the time—not just during camp season. Please be in prayer that those who will be attending the Fall Retreat will have receptive hearts and minds.

Mom continues to serve humbly behind-the-scenes. She does so much more than anyone realizes, solving problems before the rest of us even know they exist. (I suspect that was hidden somewhere in the fine print of the job description for this occupation called “Mom.”)

Josiah and Denita keep using their gifts to serve others, connecting with people in a powerful and encouraging way.

Benjamin does a great job overseeing maintenance projects at Grace Farm. Every person who walks across freshly-cut grass gets blessed by Benjamin's work.

Bethany is enjoying the benefits of being sixteen. (Land sakes! Where did the time go?) She has her learners' permit now.

I have returned to Dayspring Bible College and Seminary for the fall semester. I will continue studying to get my master's degree in missions and administration. I am thankful to God for allowing me to study and put the skills I'm learning into practice every day. I can already see the benefit of Bible College. I can tell it is helping me be more effective in my personal ministry.
