A Personal Word

From the Coile Family

November 19, 2026

Dear friends,

Thanksgiving is more than just a day to eat turkey and watch football—or at least it should be. Scripture commands believers to give thanks to God for what He has given us and what He has done for us. This season is a great time to pause and reflect on all the ways God has blessed us. We could never name all the things we are thankful for, but here's a start!

Mama Janet is thankful for family, fellow believers who share struggles and victories, and the faithfulness of God in hard times.

Josiah is thankful for God's Word, warm clothes, and for the sound ice on a pond makes when you throw a big rock onto it. (If you can't imagine that sound, seriously, go try it!)

Denita is thankful for the health and safety of her family, for her joy in the Lord, and for the ability to enjoy good food.

Orrin is too young to talk, but if he could, he would probably say MILK!

I (Eden) am thankful that God's mercy far outweighs my sins, that God's love for me is unchanging and neverending, and that His way is perfect.

Benjamin is thankful for Jesus, the freedoms we have in America, and good friends.

Bethany is thankful for her salvation, education, and the great outdoors!

We are thankful for you—our support family. You allow us to do what we do. Your prayers strengthen us. Your love for the gospel encourages us. You motivate us to be wholehearted in our service to the Lord. You are partakers with us in our ministry endeavours. We appreciate you!

From our home to yours,
Happy Thanksgiving, y'all!

Love always,
The Coile family

O give thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.
Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.
Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore.
Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
Psalm 105:1-5
